

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The Kazakh-British Technical University (KBTU), leader of Kazakhstani higher technical education, is looking for candidates for guest professors to conduct research and teaching at KBTU for Spring 2019 or Fall 2019.

KBTU's research activity is focused on the main sectors of the Kazakhstan economy: oil and gas, information technologies, banking and finance, and telecommunications.

Requirements

Work experience: to have research and teaching experience no less than 3 years;

Research degree: no less than PhD;

Guest lecturers work at KBTU should include teaching accordingly to the specialties listed below*, collaboration with the scientists, lecturers and students on a topic of his/her research, contribution to the organization of research seminars.

Candidates should provide evidence of their research activities that target significant international venues.

*Specialties:

- Information technologies (information systems, computer science and software, automation and control)
- Geology and Exploration of Mineral Resources
- Petroleum Engineering
- Management
- Accounting
- Finance
- Economics
- Chemical Engineering (chemical technology of organic substances)
- Mathematical and Computer Modeling

Conditions

Duration of contract: 4 weeks in spring 2019 or autumn 2019.

Remuneration: A total amount of 4000 USD will be paid to cover following costs: teaching hours, research consultations, accommodation and plane ticket.

Documents and information to provide:

1. CV;
2. Recommendation letter;
3. Last selected research publications since September 2015 indicating impact factor, citation index, and patent record;
4. Copy of passport;
5. Copies of diplomas (bachelor, master, PhD);
6. Approximate Dates of your visit;
7. Preferred subjects for teaching.

Please send your applications before October 25, 2018 to:

a.akzhalova@kbtu.kz and/or international@kbtu.kz